Anthem texts for November

2 How beauteous are their feet

How beauteous are their feet, who stand on Sion's hill, who bring salvation on their tongues and words of peace reveal! How happy are our ears that hear this happy sound, which kings and prophets waited for, and sought, but never found! How blessed are our eyes that see this heavenly light, prophets and kings desired it long, but died without the sight! The Lord makes bare his arm through all the earth abroad: Let every nation now behold their Saviour and their God.

Words: Isaac Watts 1674 – 1748

Music: Charles Villiers Stanford 1852 – 1924

6 Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd : therefore can I lack nothing. He shall feed me in a green pasture : and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort. He shall convert my soul : and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for his Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil : for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me. Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me : thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full. Surely thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life : and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Words: Psalm 23

Music: Charles Hylton Stewart 1884 – 1932

16 God is love: his the care

God is love: his the care, tending each, ev'rywhere, God is love, all is there! Jesus came to show him, that we all might know him!

Sing aloud, loud, loud! sing aloud, loud, loud! God is good! God is truth! God is beauty! Praise him!

None can see God above; we can share life and love; thus may we Godward move, finding him in creation, holding ev'ry nation. [Refrain]

Jesus lived on the earth, hope and life brought to birth and affirmed human worth, for he came to save us by the truth he gave us. [Refrain]

To our Lord praise we sing, light and life, friend and King, coming down, love to bring, pattern for our duty, showing God in beauty. [Refrain]

Words: Percy Dearmer 1867 – 1936

Music: from Piae Cantiones (1582) arr. Gustav Holst 1874 – 1934

23 What wondrous love is this?

What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my soul! What wondrous love is this, O my soul! What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss to lay aside his crown for my soul, for my soul, to lay aside his crown for my soul. To God and to the Lamb I will sing, I will sing; to God and to the Lamb I will sing. To God and to the Lamb who is the great I AM, while millions join the theme, I will sing, I will sing, while millions join the theme I will sing. And when from death I'm free I'll sing on, I'll sing on, and when from death I'm free I'll sing on. And when from death I'm free, I'll sing and joyful be, and through eternity I'll sing on, I'll sing on, and through eternity I'll sing on.

Words: American folk hymn

Music: American melody, arr. Geoff Weaver b 1943

30 The Truth from above

This is the truth sent from above, the truth of God, the God of love; therefore don't turn me from your door, but hearken all both rich and poor. The first thing which I do relate is that God did man create, the next thing which to you I'll tell: woman was made with man to dwell. Then after this 'twas God's own choice to place them both in Paradise, there to remain from evil free, except they ate of such a tree. And they did eat, which was a sin, and thus their ruin did begin; ruined themselves, both you and me, and all of their posterity. Thus we were heirs to endless woes, till God the Lord did interpose, and so a promise son did run that he would redeem us by His Son.

Words: Traditional English carol

Music: Traditional English tune, arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams 1872 – 1958
